

Safe Church, Safe Communities

Policies for Children and Youth and Vulnerable Adults

The Bishop's Committee/Vestry of Grace Church Episcopal of Yukon officially has adopted the policies of the Episcopal Diocese of Oklahoma Policies for Children and Youth, and the Policies for Vulnerable Adults as our congregational policies. We are committed to maintaining a safe church and safe community and ensuring the policies and training modules of the Diocese of Oklahoma are completed and followed.

Policies can be found at <https://www.epiok.org/safe-church>

Reporting

To make a report possible misconduct, policy violations, or abuse/neglect within Grace Church, please contact Gina Carlisle – gina@graceyukon.org – or Fr. Tim Baer – tim@graceyukon.org.

To make a report to the Diocese concerning possible misconduct, policy violations, or abuse/neglect involving a layperson in the Episcopal Diocese of Oklahoma, follow all internal reporting procedures as noted in the Safe Church policies and the Duty to Report video (see website above). Send the Confidential Notice of Concern to safechurch@epiok.org.

To make a report concerning possible misconduct, policy violations, or abuse/neglect involving a member of the clergy please contact one of the Title IV In-Take Officers for the Diocese:

Kelly Masters-Newton kmastersnewton@icloud.com (405) 537-3903 OR

The Rev. Robby Trammell robwtrammell@gmail.com (405) 740-4104

DHS Reporting

If you witness, suspect, or know of abuse, exploitation, or neglect Oklahoma DHS can be reached at 1-800-522-3511 (available 24/7). A report for vulnerable adults can be filed at OKHotline.org. If a minor or vulnerable adult is in imminent danger, call 911 first, and then contact OK DHS.
